Entrance Scholarship Application Form

Applicant's Name: _____ To Enter Grade: _____ in September: _____

Current School: _____

Thanks to the generosity of Crofton House School donors, the school is able to offer a number of entrance scholarships to students who have demonstrated high achievement in the areas of academics, arts, athletics, and citizenship. Entrance scholarships are merit-based financial awards presented to select students who have followed the entrance scholarship application process, including the submission of this form, and successfully qualified for scholarship award.

All scholarships are applied as a reduction of school fees. Specific scholarships and student eligibility are detailed in the Entrance Scholarship booklet. The entrance scholarship committee will review the results of Crofton House School's regular admissions requirements as well as an entrance scholarship examination and two confidential reference forms completed by a teacher, coach, or instructor which must be mailed directly to the school. Scholarship recipients will be notified of this scholarship award with their offer of admission to Crofton House School.
